Have you been planning a trip to Lake Como? If so, then it's well worth considering all of the amazing opportunities available to you in the area – and our experts are on hand to help with this today! With this thought in mind, we've outlined some of the best places to visit on Lake Como as follows; hopefully, this will help make your trip to Italy one that you cherish for a lifetime!

The Best Places to Visit on Lake Como

#1 Visit Como

Without a doubt, no trip to Lake Como would be complete without visiting the city of Como itself. Luckily, if you're making the trip to Lake Como by car from Milan, this will likely be something you pass by – making it a highly practical destination to consider as part of your trip, too. With numerous exquisite 14-century cathedrals and buildings, you'll be whisked away to a quieter way of life while visiting this iconic, timeless city. Be sure to bring your camera to make the most of it!

#2 Bellagio

Next up on our list is Bellagio's iconic, breathtaking, and old-world town. It might not be the easiest place to access, considering the winding roads and narrow streets, but it's clear to see just how much old-world charm this gorgeous destination can pack in. It's the perfect destination for a laid-back and relaxed day out, especially if you're the sort of person who delights in trying local delicacies!

#3 Varenna

Even the name sounds soothing and magical as it rolls easily off the tongue – and Varenna certainly lives up to expectations if you've been looking for new places to visit during your time on Lake Como. Better yet, it's also a great place for access, meaning you can easily combine it with a trip to Bellagio. With stunning Mediterranean architecture, the Villa Monastero museum, botanical gardens, and even its own castle, this iconic town is easily one of the most stunning on Lake Como. No wonder so many people include it as part of their holiday, then.

#4 Nesso

Nesso is another one of Italy's stunning hidden gems and is completely bordered by stunning treelines and forests that make it feel especially unique and charming. With a stunning, ancient Italian town centre and a majestic waterfall nestled right in the heart of the town that's enough of a reason to visit in its own right, we'd definitely recommend adding it to your list of the best places to place on Lake Como. Be sure to stop by at the Church of Saints Pietro and Paolo, as well, during your trip through Nesso's old town centre.

#5 Argegno

There's something quite charming about Argegno's unique layout, with houses steadily climbing the slope of the mountainous region behind the waterfront. It might only be a small village, but it's packed with charm and character, which makes it an excellent destination to get involved with the beauty and magic of Lake Como. It also has its own small harbour, which, though lacking a little in size, is wonderfully quaint and feels quintessentially Italian.
